

DVIEW command

2107 GstarCAD MY /KW August 12, 2021 CAD Commands 0 1484

The DVIEW command used to define parallel projection or perspective views by using a camera and target.

Command Access:

Command entry : DVIEW

Command Prompts:

DView : [CAmera/TARget/TWist/Distance/POints/Off/Hide/PAn/Zoom/eXit]<eXit>:

Camera : Specify a new camera position by rotating the camera around the target point.

Target : Specify a new position for the target by rotating it around the camera.

Twist : Twist or tilt the view around the line of sight.

Distance : Move the camera in or out along the line of sight relative to the target.

Points : Using X,Y,Z coordinates to locate the camera and target points.

Off : Turn off perspective viewing.

Hide : Suppress hidden lines on the selected objects to aid in visualization.

Pan : Move the image without changing the level of magnification.

Zoom : Increase or decrease the apparent size of objects in the current viewport dynamically when perspective viewing is off .

Online URL: <https://www.gstarcad.com.my/knowledge/article/dview-command-2107.html>