

TOOLPALETTES command

2399 GstarCAD MY /KW August 24, 2021 CAD Commands 0 1089

The TOOLPALETTES command is used to open the "Tool Palettes" window.

Command Access:

Ribbon : View > Palettes > Tool Palettes

Menu : Tools > Palettes > Tool Palettes

Command : TOOLPALETTECLOSE

Function Description:

Users could use it to arrange blocks, hatch and custom tools. Right-click any position of the tool palette, it will display the following options:

All palettes : Display all tool options in the palette window.

Close : Close the tool palettes window.

Copy : Copy the specified tool to clipboard.

Customize commands : Display the "Custom" dialog box.

Customize palettes : Display the "Customize User Interface" dialog box.

Cut : Remove the specified tool from tool palette and save it to the clipboard.

Delete : Delete selected tool from tool palette.

Delete palettes : Delete the current palette.

New palette : Create a new palette. Input its name or press ENTER to use default name.

Properties : Display the "Tool Properties" dialog box and modify properties of selected tool.

Rename : Rename the specified tool.

Rename palette : Rename the current palette.

Sort By : Sort the palette by name or type or content.

View options : Display the "View Option" dialog box and select a view style of control box.

Online URL: <https://www.gstarcad.com.my/knowledge/article/toolpalettes-command-2399.html>